The God who's always faithful

It really doesn't matter how I feel

Dm

I'm trusting in the only God – and I know He's real

On the mountain tops – and even in the valley places

F

He promised that He'll never leave me

Dm

I know that He will keep His word

So no matter how I feel

He's still the unchanging God

I know that I can come to You
C
The God who's always faithful
